

2020 OASCA Infection Prevention Seminar

Tuesday, July 14, 2020 | 9:00am - 3:30pm
GoTo Meeting - Online Platform
Log-in information provided 2 days prior to event

9:00a - 10:00a	Point of Use Treatment of Medical Devices
10:00a - 11:00a	Introduction to Low Temp Processing for Reusable Medical Devices
11:00a - 12:00p	Low Temp Processing an Update on Guidelines, Standards and Requirements
12:00p - 1:00p	Lunch Break
1:00p - 2:00p	Lost in the IFU Wilderness: Find Your Way Today
2:00p - 3:00p	Surviving an Infection Prevention Survey
3:00p - 3:30p	General Q/A & Closing

Delores O'Connell is a Clinical Education Specialist, representing STERIS Corporation supporting IPT Healthcare in the Colorado She is responsible for supporting the professional education needs to achieve best practices for sterile processing, infection control, surgical and endoscopy environments as it pertains to device processing. Prior to STERIS, Mrs. O'Connell started her career as a staff nurse and spent the last 22 years as the Manager of Sterile Processing, Surgical Inventory & Medical Equipment Logistics for a multi hospital system in the Midwest. She has worked as a consultant on several healthcare construction projects assisting in developing a hospital Sterile Processing department from the blueprint stage to full operation.